David P. Matthews brings a passion for justice and 20 years of experience to the practice of law. "I handle cases and do my homework as if my life depends on it," Matthews says. "When we're in trial, I believe I know more about the case at hand than anyone else in the courtroom."

As a national top AV-rated lawyer, Matthews handles pharmaceutical litigation, catastrophic injuries, product liability, plant explosions and many other personal injury cases.

Matthews & Associates employs more than 50 professional staff members. The firm's lawyers have more than 80 years of combined legal experience. The staff also includes researchers, paralegals, secretaries, administrators and a medical doctor.

Standing up for those harmed by negligence, greed or incompetence, Matthews & Associates makes the client their number one priority.

"If I can help steer my client through one of life's most difficult chapters, I feel like I have accomplished something worthwhile," Matthews says. "That's what our hard work is all about."

Matthews is a guest lecturer at Rice University on drug design and FDA regulation, and a national speaker on litigation matters. Matthews is a member of the Texas Trial Lawyers Association, the Houston Bar Association, and the American Board of Trial Advocates. He is part of the Leaders Forum for the American Trial Lawyers Association (formerly ATLA).

Matthews & Associates is a national practice with offices in Houston and New York City. The firm's lawyers are licensed in several states. Matthews is licensed in Texas, Mississippi and New York.
